Safeguarding and the Digital Thread

Wednesday 4th March 2020, 09.15am – 15.30pm
The Old Library, Guildhall, Gresham St, London EC2V 7HH

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHIES

Andrew Carter, Director Community & Children's Services, City of London Corporation

Andrew has Chief Officer responsibilities for: Housing & the Barbican, Children's and Adult Social Care, Education & Skills, Homelessness and Rough Sleeping, Community Libraries and Health & Wellbeing.

Andrew joined the Corporation in May 2017 having previously been an Assistant Director in Thurrock and Lambeth Councils. Andrew has over 20 years of experience in Children's and Families Social Work having obtained a Masters in Social Work from the University of Sussex in 1994. Andrew is passionate about building stronger communities and co-production.

Jim Gamble QPM, Chief Executive Officer, Ineqe Safeguarding Group & Independent Child Safeguarding Commissioner, CHSCP

Jim Gamble, is the CEO of Ineqe Safeguarding Group. He is the Independent Child Safeguarding Commissioner of the CHSCP and former chair of the CHSCB - the first to be judged outstanding by Ofsted in both the City of London and Hackney. Jim also chairs the Bromley Safeguarding Children Partnership where he was part of the leadership team that drove their judgement from inadequate to 'good with outstanding leadership' in two years.
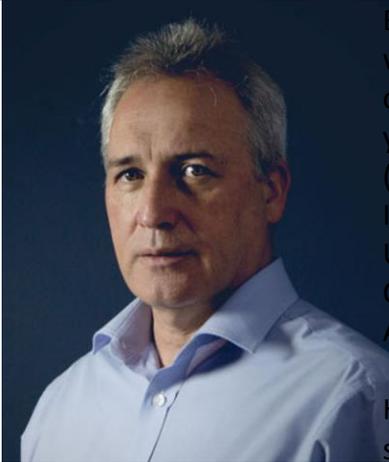

He is widely recognised as a global authority on safeguarding children and was the founding chair of the Virtual Global Taskforce; a former national policing lead for child protection and the architect and CEO of the UK Child Exploitation and Online Protection (CEOP) Centre. He has undertaken a number of safeguarding reviews, including the Brighton and Sussex University Hospital Trust and most recently the review of Oxfam GB.

Megan Hinton, Campaigner

A youth produced sexual imagery campaigner with lived experience.

Bill Woodside, Chief Operating Officer, Ineqe Safeguarding Group

Bill is a founding partner and Chief Operating Officer at Ineqe Group, where he has specialised in the delivery of safeguarding training and consultancy. He is a former senior Police Officer with over twenty-seven years policing experience, both in the Police Service of Northern Ireland (PSNI) and previously in the Royal Ulster Constabulary (RUC). Immediately prior to his retirement he was the Operational Command Unit Commander for Belfast Region and Deputy to the Assistant Chief Constable. In addition, he was the former President of the European Airport and Seaport Police.

He has extensive experience in multi-agency partnerships including specialist forums to engage young people and hard to reach groups. Bill is a Prince 2 certified project manager who has conducted reviews of a wide range of policing and criminal justice functions across the globe. Bill has an honours degree in Law (LLB (Hons)) and a Masters degree in Criminal Justice Management. He is a Fellow of the Chartered Management Institute.

Hannah Paul LLM, Director of Operations, Ineqe Safeguarding Group

A digital safeguarding expert with a deep insight of online harms, developed over many years whilst working directly with safeguarding professionals, children, young people, and parents/carers.

Roseanne Long, Head of Learning, Development & Research, Ineqe Safeguarding Group

An experienced Learning & Development professional, with a background in Interactive Media & a student of Psychotherapeutic Counselling. Roseanna has worked across a variety of sectors supporting people in their workplace and developing their skills through innovative training programmes, learning solutions and mentoring relationships. She has a particular interest in creating strategies to develop a supportive learning culture to enhance employee wellbeing and mental health.

The workshop on youth produced sexual imagery, will provide delegates with an opportunity to share their practical experiences. There will be a focus on identifying best practice approaches to responding to incidents and managing behaviour in relation to sharing images.